

Builders Risk Plan Insured by Zurich

The Builders Risk Plan insured by Zurich and available exclusively through US Assure is the nation's number one insurance solution for construction professionals. With comprehensive, nationwide coverage and flexible policy options, our Builders Risk Plan is designed to meet the specific needs of most residential and commercial customers and can be customized for even the largest construction projects. The Builders Risk Plan offers extensive capacity and comprehensive, tailored coverage options.

Product Highlights

- Ability to rate, quote, issue, and manage most policies over the Internet at usassure.com
- Financial strength and stability of a respected "A" rated carrier
- Residential and commercial structures
- New construction, remodeling and installation projects
- Capacity for projects of any size and value
- Innovative coverage options designed with the needs of builders and contractors in mind
- Policy options include "one shot" or single structure, reporting form and deposit premium
- Direct access to our dedicated team of underwriters
- Policies can be insured in the name of the contractor or owner
- Direct billing and a convenient commission payment process
- Nationwide availability

Partner with us.

Partnering with US Assure means you will receive customer service from a team that fully understands the insurance industry. It means trusting a team with expertise and insight that is always thinking ahead to deliver solutions that meet your clients' needs. Most importantly, it means gaining an extension of your team that is experienced, committed and focused on your success.

Receive instant access to our portfolio of builders risk and property insurance programs through our simple online registration process at usassure.com. Our dedicated, responsive team of specialists is also available at (800) 800 - 3907.