

Zurich Builders Risk: Product & Policy Tips

November 2025

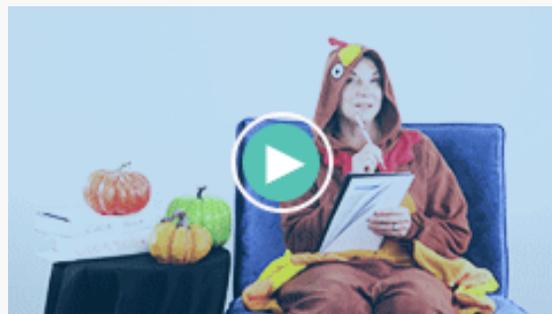

Jaclyn, this edition offers insights to sharpen your competitive edge.

Explore our new E&S coverage solution, housing market insights, a guide to soft cost coverages and more.

Surplus Lines Coverage for Projects Over $10M

Have a hard-to-place risk? Discover our new E&S solution available countrywide for large, complex construction projects that don't fit our admitted box.

> Watch or read now

Recent Account Feature

4 single-story duplexes | frame new construction | Oklahoma City, OK

The Next Generations of Home Buyers

Learn how the volatile housing market is influencing Millennial and Gen Z purchases — and how you can seize these insurance opportunities.

> Read now

Help Clients Understand Soft Costs

Unexpected disasters can lead to serious financial setbacks in residential and commercial construction. Download our guide to help clients protect their investments.

> Download now

Terminology Spotlight — Manufactured Construction

Also known as trailers or mobile homes, manufactured construction refers to structures that are built in a factory on a non-removable steel chassis and then transported to a site for placement and minimal on-site assembly. Manufactured construction is not covered under the Zurich Builders Risk program.

Zurich Residential Builders Risk 101 Webinar

January 13 or 14 | 11 a.m. or 2 p.m. ET

In this 30-minute virtual training, you'll learn how to secure new construction, remodeling and installation projects under the "A" rated Builders Risk Plan insured by Zurich.

> Find out more