

Zurich Builders Risk: Product & Policy Tips

April 2026

Hi there,

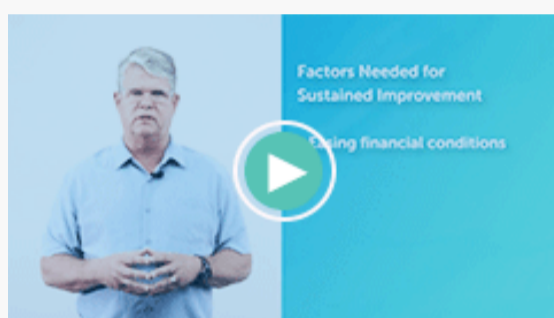

What factors are driving change with construction clients in 2026? Find out in the Spring Construction Forecast from our CEO & President, get four proven application tips from our Director of Producer Training and Development and see how easy it is to endorse policies online.

Share this edition with colleagues to help everyone stay ahead in today's evolving landscape.

Spring 2026 Construction Forecast

Get a first look at what's shaping builders risk opportunities this year from our CEO & President Alan Ferguson.

> Watch or read now

4 Tips to Nail Your Application

Madame Mary is gazing into the future of your next builders risk application, sharing four surefire tactics to ace the details and avoid missteps.

> Watch or read now

Recent Account Feature

$3.4M 1.5-story home | frame new construction | Shawnee, KS

How to Endorse Policies Online

Did you know you can endorse certain builders risk policies yourself? This step-by-step tutorial walks you through how to endorse policies originally issued online — and how to use that tricky blank endorsement.

> Watch or read now

Terminology Spotlight: Short-Rate Cancellation

Occurs when a policyholder decides to terminate the insurance policy before the expiration date; available with a 10% penalty for Maryland, Montana and New Hampshire.

5 Builders Risk Coverages Explained

45-Minute Webinar | May 19 or 20 | 11 a.m. or 2 p.m. ET

In our most-requested online training, our expert will break down the top five builders risk coverages that make the biggest impact when tailoring a policy.

> Find out more